

SPURGEON TRIAL IS PROGRESSING

Accused of Killing Mrs. Kelly of Cushing on May 15 This Year

ETERNAL TRIANGLE SEEN

Husband Returns From the Army and Finds Wife Infatuated

Special to The World

STILLWATER, Sept. 22.—The trial of Roy Spurgeon, charged with the murder of Mrs. Kelly of Cushing on May 15, is now under way here in the district court of Payne county, with Judge Arthur S. Swank presiding. Norman Pratt, famous Oklahoma City lawyer, in criminal cases, is Spurgeon's attorney. W. W. Kelly, the dead woman's husband, has employed R. J. Barton of Cushing to assist County Attorney C. C. Shuman in the prosecution.

The death of Mrs. Kelly ended a drama of the eternal triangle in which a wife and husband and another man played the chief roles and in which the specialties were incestuous love and jealousy, the death also ended divorce action which probably would have been filed in court here a few days after the time she died.

According to evidence offered in the preliminary hearing, Spurgeon and Mrs. Kelly were infatuated with one another. The popular supposition is that if guilty of the charge, Spurgeon killed the woman because she went back to live with her husband, who had returned from the army, or because she refused to go with him to Texas, where he had secured a position.

Red-haired, vivacious, and of splendid physique, Mrs. Kelly, a woman of 35 years, was claimed to be somewhat of the saucy type. Kelly was her third husband and they were married in 1915. Spurgeon, hardly more than a boy, is 25 years old. He is dark, well-built and of good appearance. He was a skilled field worker until his wanderings with the woman caused his failure. Kelly, six years younger than was his wife, is small, quick, snappy and. He is superintendent of an oil company at Cushing.

The chain of events preceding the killing starts last December when Kelly returned from the army. The night he returned to Cushing his wife was at a dance with a man, who, Kelly testified at the preliminary, his wife told him was Spurgeon. Domestic quarrels followed, apparently culminating in January when Mrs. Kelly filed her petition for divorce, alleging gross neglect of duty and jealousy.

On April 3, when Kelly returned to his home from work he found a letter from his wife saying that she was going to Tulsa. The letter, Kelly said, caused him to file a cross petition for divorce, alleging that when he returned from the army he found his wife infatuated with another man.

Many letters from Mrs. Kelly were found on Spurgeon when he was arrested. There were telegrams, too, offered in evidence. Some

WOULDN'T TAKE ALL MONEY IN FORT WORTH FOR RESULTS

Jay Wilson Says He Was Sick for Two Years—Has Gained 20 Pounds.

"Honestly, I wouldn't take all the money in Fort Worth for the good five bottles of Organo Treatment has done me, and see myself back in the same fit I was before taking the treatment," said Jay Wilson, a well-known oil writer, residing at 203 Oakland street, Fort Worth, Texas, while in Renfro's Drug Store a few days ago.

"Yes, sir," continued Mr. Wilson, "I have gained 20 pounds in weight, and I keep on gaining. And what's better than that, all of my two years' troubles have left me, and I don't feel like I was ever sick a day in my life."

"I had an awful time with indigestion and stomach trouble. Nearly everything I ate disagreed with me. After I'd eaten my stomach would become swollen and I would feel like I had a lump of lead in my stomach from the food I would eat. I was constipated all the time and was awfully free from headache."

"I was nervous and couldn't sleep well and my rest was so broken I would feel awful when I'd get up in the morning. I had lost a great deal in weight and was looking thinner all the time. I didn't seem to have any strength, energy and was tired and languid all the time. Besides this, my whole system was out of order. I took every kind of medicine I could think of, but got no relief at all. In fact they seemed to aggravate my troubles, and I kept getting worse all the time."

"It's really astonishing how fast I picked up when I began taking Organo. My appetite got better and I began to enjoy my meals and my back my strength right from the start. From taking these five bottles I have actually gained 20 pounds in weight, and, by the way, my troubles are getting faster, faster, and I now eat just anything I want and have no more bad feelings in my stomach, arising from the indigestion. My nerves are perfectly quiet now and I sleep like a child. I now feel good on getting up in the morning."

"I'm entirely relieved of the constipation and the bad feelings caused by that trouble. I was looking pale and had a bad color before taking Organo but my friends say I am looking fine now. My complexion in every way is wonderful. I'm enjoying better health than I have in two years, and I'm so thankful for what Organo has done for me I feel like telling everybody about it."

"Organo is not a concealed patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa exclusively by Roy H. Dietman's Book Store, Tulsa, and Platteville, Ind. for West Tulsa, under the personal direction of a special Organo representative—Adv.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 22.—The state insurance commission is receiving many letters commending a recent ruling that is of vast importance to home builders who hold building and loan association contracts. The loan associations recently applied to the commission for an order in which it is intended that loan associations could dictate the choice of insurance companies when the owner of a contract sought to insure the property. The commission said that although as the owner of a building and loan association contract has the right to choose the contractor to build his home, the owner is to pay for it and can dictate the style and material of its construction. That he should also be permitted to determine in what company it should be insured. The ruling holds that so long as the insurance policy is valid, with a recognized company and of the amount satisfactory to the loan association, that the association can ask no more.
